Baby Alligator and Mom Alligator

by Annie

One morning in summer Baby Alligator woke up from his nap. He did not have anything to do. He said, "This is boring mom."

I know

but this is
man

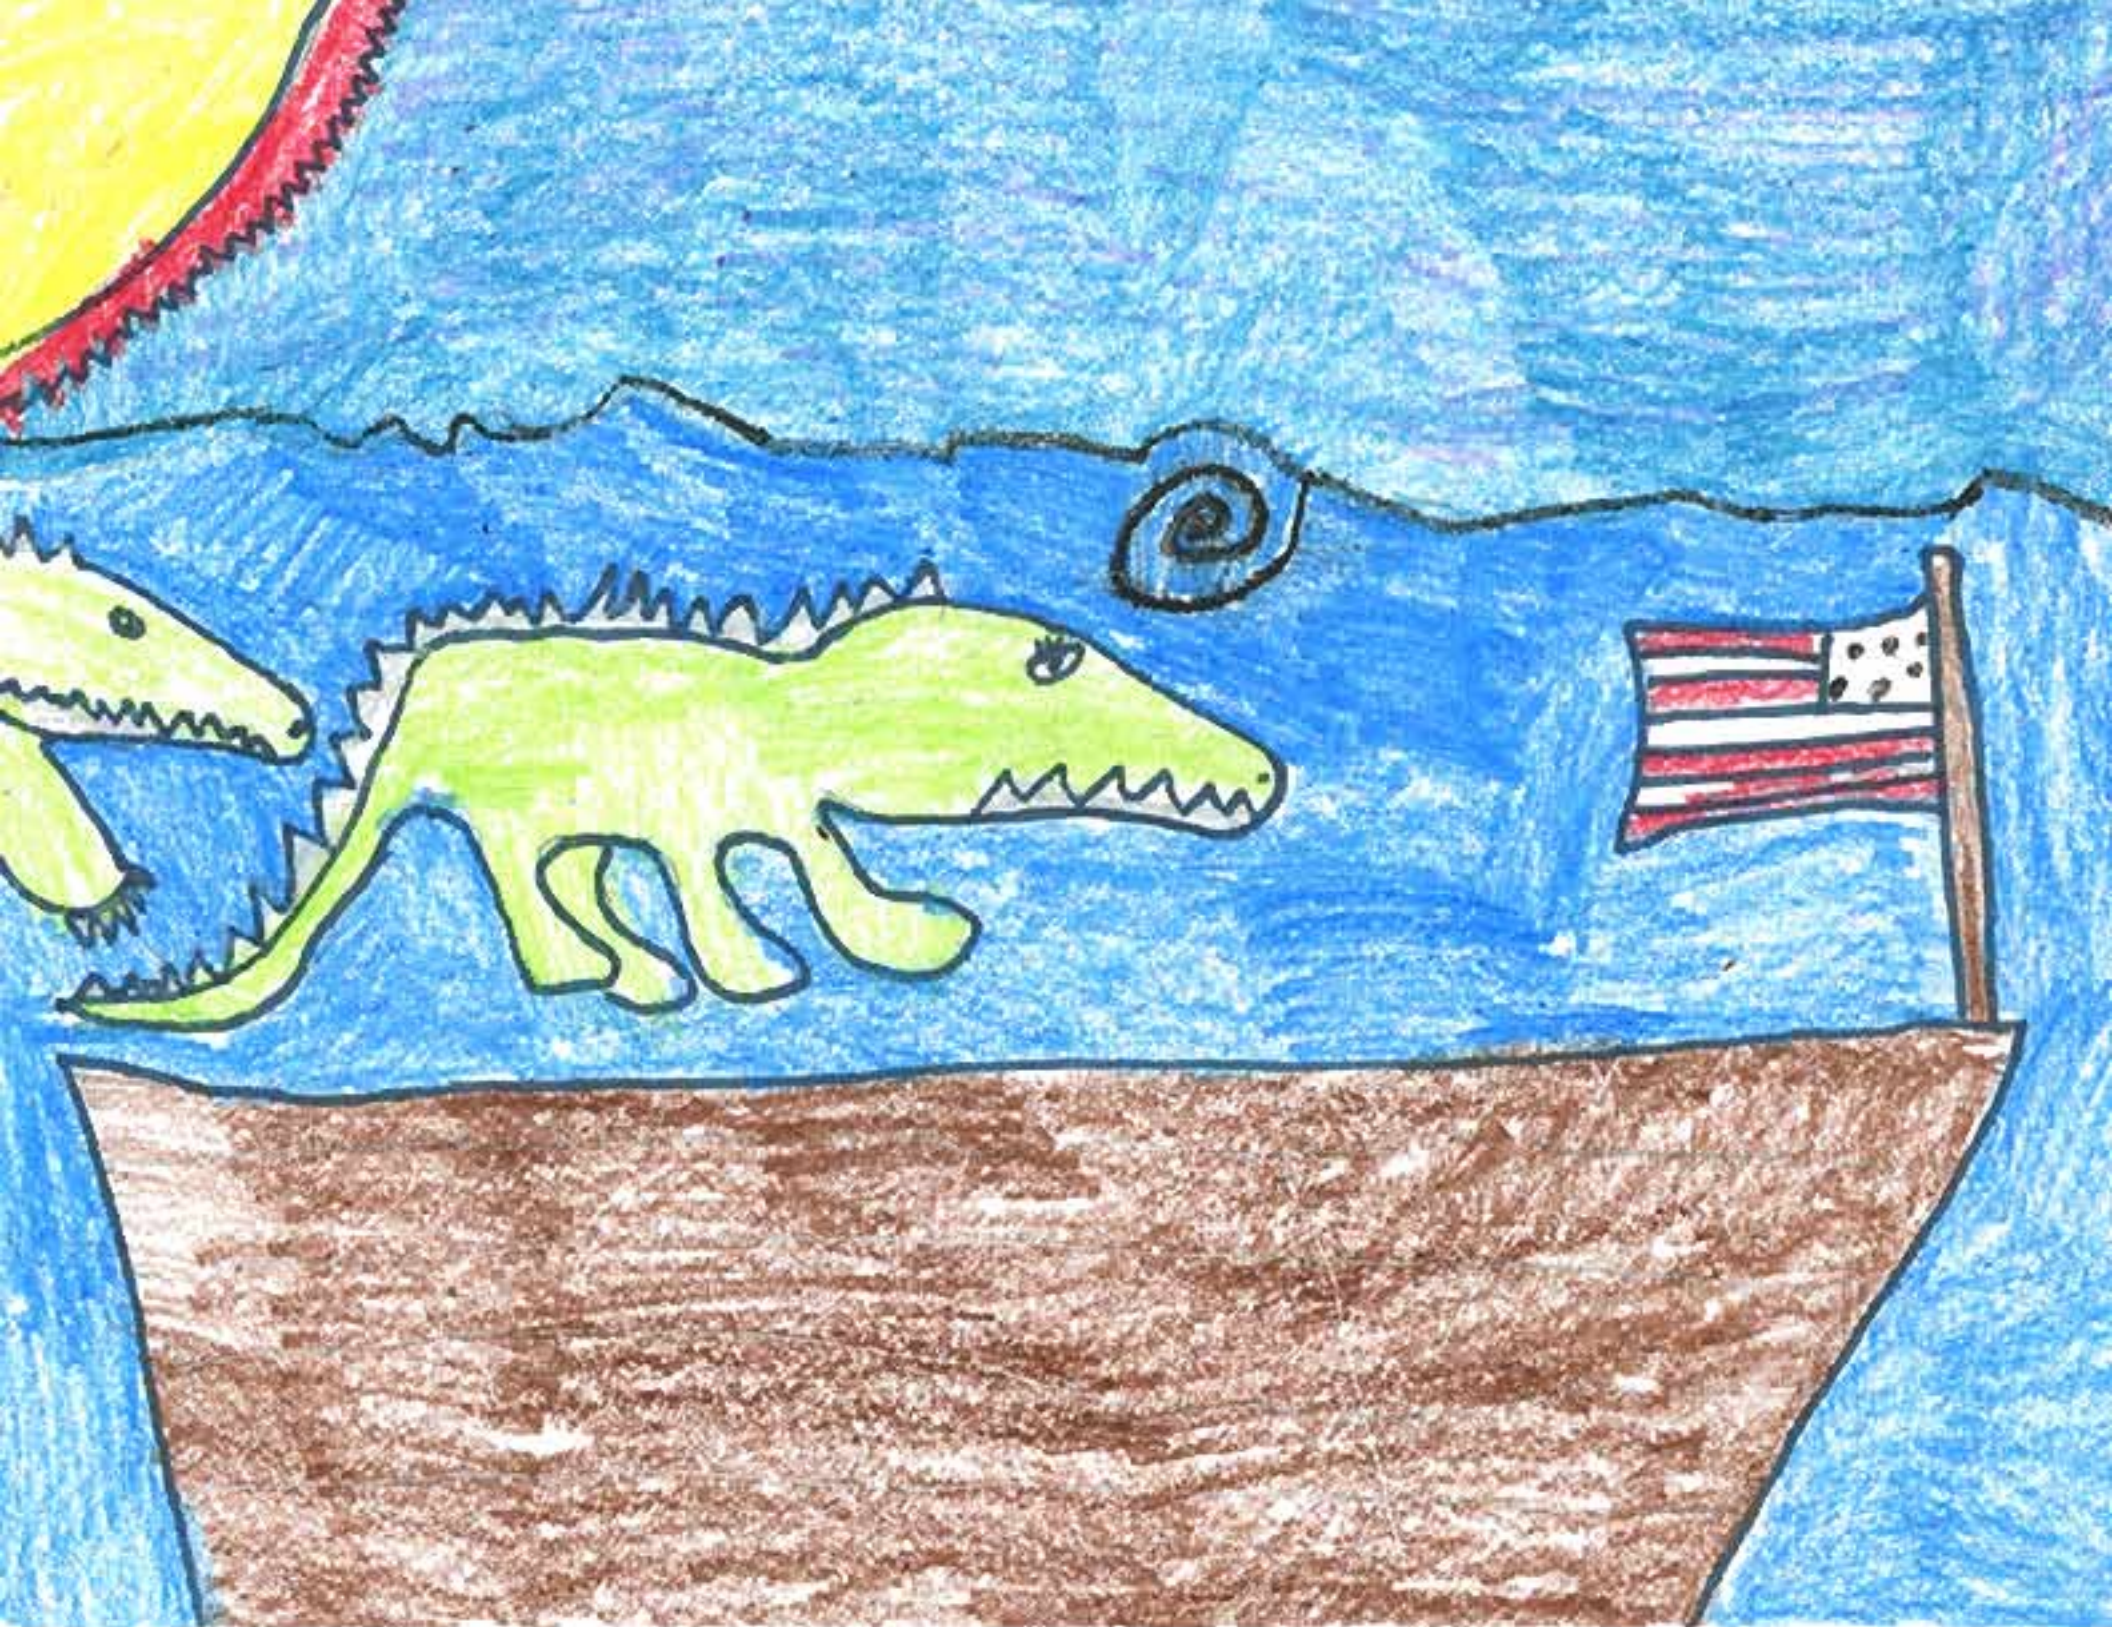

So they drove their purple mini van to the edge of the lake. They got out of their mini van.

Baby Alligator dug a deep hole in the green grass. Then Baby Alligator said, "I'm hungry mom."

So his mom took him under water to an old sunken ship. Baby Alligator ate some fish and some snails. Mom Alligator ate the same thing. Baby Alligator noticed some of the other baby alligators playing tag. One of them bumped into the edge of the ship.

Baby Alligator went over to him and said, "Are you ok?" He said, "Yes, thank you."

Then Baby Alligator joined them and they all played tag together. Baby Alligator was not bored anymore and he had lots of fun with his new friends.

When he was done playing he went back home with his mom in their purple mini van.
