

The Scubadiver
And The Whale

One day a scuba diver was sailing on a boat. He stopped his boat and dove in. In the water he saw lots of fish, and he saw a whale.

The whale was being attacked by a shark. The scuba diver hid in some seaweed. Oh how much the scuba diver wanted to help the whale.

The Scuba diver made a trap to catch the shark. Just when he finished, the Whale and the Shark came by, the cage fell on the shark. Crash!

After the whale swam away he let the shark go. Then he went back to his boat. Then he went home to the people about what he did. He told he was given a medal. Then End.
