This guide is an overview of the programs 100 Black Men of Syracuse Inc. offers that benefit the people and communities we serve. The 100 seeks to build capacity in its programs through partnerships and collaborative teamwork, while creating a community that is more resilient, sustainable, healthy and inclusive.

100 Conversations for Change (web/social media)

Program Area: Leadership Development

(Special Initiative)

Program Summary/Description:

100 Conversations for Change is an online forum held regularly to discuss social inequalities in the Greater Syracuse area. The conversations are designed to help provoke thought and inspire leaders to make positive change within their organizations:

- Design solutions that impact the Syracuse community.
- Promote racial equity and opportunity for employees of color.
- Improve connections with community-based organizations to advance inclusion and the retention of people of color within a company or organization.
- Enter into a Memorandum of Agreement for Change with the 100 Black Men of Syracuse as a public declaration of commitment to real change.

Forum topics include education, economic fairness, internal organizational changes, corporate cultures, as well as Equity, Diversity and Inclusion in the workplace.

This forum is held periodically throughout the year. Contact us to join our next forum.

What is the program's capacity? Unlimited. Forums are held on an on-going basis.

Who is featured on this program? Educators, business owners, corporate executives, civil servants and elected officials, activists and community leaders, clergy, etc.

How can I find out more information? Who do I contact?

Drake Harrison (100dhsyr@gmail.com).

Go to <https://tinyurl.com/4fr4n5xt> to view previous conversations.

When/Where is the program held? The conversations are videotaped and posted on the 100's YouTube channel and Facebook page. Future plans are to include college students in conducting the interviews. The goal is to create a podcast featuring the conversations. Guests will be invited back to discuss interventions and progress within their organizations.

Life Through My Own Lens

Program Area: Education

Program Summary/Description:

Life Through My Own Lens is a 12-week program that focuses on developing creative skills for video production and storytelling. Youth are empowered to speak their truth using their voices in creative ways through their participation in a rich curriculum. Students enroll in the program learn from professionals and use professional-level digital cameras, computers and software. The program concludes with a presentation of each student's video project to their families and members of the community.

The program introduces the following:

- How to tell a story
- How to make a film
- Learning the camera
- How to interview
- Production (equipment overview, setup and the safe use of demo gear)

Future 100

Program Area: Education/Leadership Development

Program Summary/Description:

Future 100 is a 12-week program designed to introduce high school students to diverse workforce opportunities and offer college admittance guidance. The program develops the life skills for its participants through four unique pillars that include: the history of 100 Black Men of Syracuse; leadership; community service; professional development; health and wellbeing; and financial literacy. Additionally, the program employs professionals in our community who conduct 60-90 minute interactive workshops that:

- Promote strong professional skills and an exemplary work ethic
- Enlist mentoring and engagement from industry professionals
- Provide introduction and insights into new and niche industries
- Afford networking opportunities for students
- Present paid internships for students who complete the program
- Offer financial literacy training and support
- Cultivate student enthusiasm
- Provide public speaking opportunities and conflict resolution training
- Teach the management of personal online impressions

Junior Cadet Program

Program Area: Mentoring

Program Summary/Description:

The 100 Black Men of Syracuse's Junior Cadet Program, which partners with the Syracuse City School District, Syracuse Police Department, and other service agencies, introduces youth to public safety services in a positive, learning environment. Through the mentorship provided in this pilot program, youth develop a better understanding of the role law enforcement and emergency services play in serving the public. Their shared experiences will hopefully lead to broadening the lines of communication between public safety officials and Black and Brown communities.

The program is administered by an advisory board, which is comprised of representatives from all areas of the public safety services and the broader community. Currently, the program serves fourth and fifth graders at STEAM at Dr. King Elementary School. The goal is to expand this offering to other schools.

Workforce Development Initiative

Program Area: Economic Empowerment

Program Summary/Description: The 100 Black Men of Syracuse's Workforce Development Initiative is focused on demonstrating the value of a diversified workforce by addressing the needs of the employee while working with employers to create a more inclusive environment. Our Workforce Development Initiative also seeks to engage job candidates, organized labor and employers in a relaxed atmosphere that fosters open communications and develops pragmatic approaches that improve the workplace.

More specifically, the 100 and its partners' intent is to provide guidance and structure for actions that sustain employment across industries, trades and professions for historically underserved communities and People of Color. Ultimately, the goal is to build a continuous pipeline of candidates to serve as apprentices, interns and employees for the purpose of building a more equitable society in Central New York.

Who is this program for? High school and college students, as well as adults

How do I get selected for the program? A selection process, including an interview and orientation, is required for entry.

Where is it located? Training is conducted at various locations, including worksites.

When/Where is the program held? How often? Workshops and wraparound services sponsored by the 100 and its partners are held at various training and work locations.

Winston Gaskin Community Walk for Health & Wellness

Program Area: Health and Wellness

Program Summary/Description: 100 Black Men of Syracuse annually hosts the Winston Gaskin Community Walk for Health and Wellness. This event honors Winston Gaskin, the first African American to own and operate a pharmacy in Syracuse. Gaskin, who passed away in 2009, was an Army veteran and community activist. His leadership helped lead to the formation of Housing Visions, which named a $22 million housing preservation project on Syracuse's east side in 2021 after him.

The Gaskin Community Walk is also dedicated to raising awareness around health issues in our community and encouraging healthy living. Corporate sponsorships are welcomed.

Who is this program for? Individuals and families interested in staying healthy

How do I sign up? Online registration/flyers

What is the walk's goal? To incorporate physical exercise and other healthy living habits as part of a vital lifestyle, especially for those in the region's underserved communities.

Where is the walk held? The walk is typically held in a park in Onondaga County.

How can I find out more information? Go to our website or visit our social media platforms.

Who do I contact? Charles Anderson (charlesanderson5@mac.com)

4th Mondays Health & Wellness Lecture Series

Program Area: Health & Wellness

Program Summary/Description: Black people have the highest death rate and shortest survival of any racial/ethnic group in the United States for most cancers, according to the American Cancer Society. And, as a group, Black men have the lowest life expectancy and the highest death rate from specific causes compared to both men and women of other racial and ethnic groups. With such health statistics in mind, 100 Black Men of Syracuse conducts town-hall style public lectures, either in-person or virtually, featuring medical professionals and public health experts on cancer and other medical conditions.

The goals and objectives of this program are to provide education and awareness around critical diseases and conditions that disproportionately affect underserved communities and promote preventative care. The topics include but are not limited to:

- Breast cancer
- COVID-19
- Diabetes
- Heart disease
- Brain and mental health
- Prostate cancer
- Healthy eating

Who is this program for? All age groups

How do I sign up? Go to our website or visit our social media platforms.

How can I find out more information?

Who do I contact? Charles Anderson
(charlesanderson5@mac.com)

When/Where is the program held?

Lectures are held at the South Side Innovation Center or on a virtual basis.

How often? Throughout the year
