

The Secret of the Mysterious Cave

By Chloe

Charles bounded into the woods from his treehouse. "I just can't be late" said Charles, "This is the most unique day of my life." Charles was going to ask the Mayor if he could make his treehouse extraordinary, because it seemed plain.

As he was walking he felt as if the ground beneath him was collapsing. Then CRASH! He violently hit against the dirt.

Once Charles realized he was in a cave, he had a negative thought. "I'll never see the mayor." Charles decided. Then Charles looked up at the opening of the hole. He saw all kinds of strange creatures climbing into the cave. Charles was confused. The creatures kept warning him and giving him impossible facts. One creature even told him that there was a monster ahead! "I don't believe in monsters," said Charles bravely. "Alright," said the creature, "but you'll be sorry." Then all of the creatures vanished into the walls. Charles continued walking. Then something magnificent happened! The walls around him started flashing red and green. He heard a booming voice that said, "Leave now, or face the brave monster!"

"There's no such thing as monsters!" shouted Charles. Suddenly an aggressive monster appeared out of nowhere!

A creature jumped out of the wall, and gave Charles an awesome sword. Charles rapidly grabbed the sword, and fought the dangerous monster. The best part was that all the strange creatures came out to help fight.

It didn't take long at all to defeat the monster because they did it all as a team. Since Charles had beaten the monster a door appeared. The door led to his treehouse. He had just realized that it was all a dream. So Charles learned how to work together as a team. "I can't wait to ask the Mayor about my treehouse," Charles said decidedly.

