Stories

Police Officer

Throughout the day, the police officer had to issue tickets to many students who were illegally walking across the grass. She wrote them a ticket, and they had to find the judge at City Hall to either pay their fine, or do community service (whatever the judge was feeling up to giving out.) Always follow the rules in Enterprise America or the judge will find you and give you a ticket!

Sports Shop

Mrs. Marra is currently the foosball champion of Enterprise America. No students have been able to beat her yet. Hopefully students coming next time will win against her!

Manufacturing Center

The Manufacturing Center decided to put all of their items on sale for the last break.

They cut their prices down so that everything that was left on the table was $1 each!
