Sparkle and Noble

Once there was a starfish named Sparkle she was lonely she had no friends. So Sparkle wondered and wished ALL DAY LONG. Two of the wishes she longed for most were a friend, and being able to walk on dry land. So one day she went swimming to the other side of the coral reef where the magical shark lived.

Sparkle went in to the sharks house she asked "Where did all the other fish go there used to be a lot of fish?" The shark replied "They all went to a different coral when I moved in because they all thought I would eat them." Then Sparkle asked another question. "Can you make it so I can walk on dry land?" "I can" said the Shark. Sparkle got excited. And then the shark said "If you bring back an Orange pearl." "Ok" Sparkle said more excited than ever. When Sparkle got home she decided to keep everything a secret. For dinner Sparkle had mollusks. When Sparkle went to bed she thought about what The Shark said and in her mind said I will get up early tomorrow morning and find the Orange pearl. And that is just what she did. In the morning she woke up, had a breakfast of mussels and then set out to find the Orange pearl. Sparkle went outside her house and right next to her door was the Orange pearl! She picked it up and swam to the shark's cave and gave it to the shark. "I see you have brought back the Orange pearl?" "I have" said Sparkle more excited than before. "Come deeper in my cave and I will grant your wish." Sparkle went deeper into the cave. The shark took the Orange pearl and put it in a cauldron that was over a hot fire. The cauldron had boiling liquid in it. It turned bright Orange with Purple swirls. The shark took a silver spoon and smelled it then she gave it to Sparkle. She drank all of it and then swam to the surface she swam to the closest dock and climbed up the wooden post. She was on dry land!

The moment she got used to the sunlight a puppy came charging at her she screamed as loud as she could the puppy stopped and then sparkle noticed the puppy just wanted to play. "Hi I'm Noble." Now knowing that she had scared Sparkle she wanted to say something nice. "Hi I'm Sparkle." "I didn't want to scare you I get really excited sorry." Later that night, Sparkle missed her house. Noble and Sparkle went home and were friends for eternity.
