City Hall Interviews

The City Hall residents work hard to keep your city safe and clean. They work on laws, and the police officers of Enterprise America do an awesome job to keep the city under control.

More from City Hall:

After interviewing Cooper, we went over to Kelly McManus' point of view on things. In McManus' interview she points out that as the city finance manager, things move very quickly and a lot of work has to be done. Kelly also manages keeping track citizens finances.

In an interview with Cooper Corcoran, who is the mayor and works at city hall, he told us Enterprise America is a fun learning experience. During his interview, Corcoran stated that during your high school years, it's a good time to begin thinking about your future career. Cooper's job as the mayor is to run the city and manage all the cities money. On your trip to Enterprise America you don't need to bring anything, Cooper says all you need is your lunch and coat!
